

HURRICANE

Colombian coast edition

Fernando Castillo - Andrés Alarcón
Ana María Llanos - Juan Camacho
Camila Amaya - Gabriela Gallegos

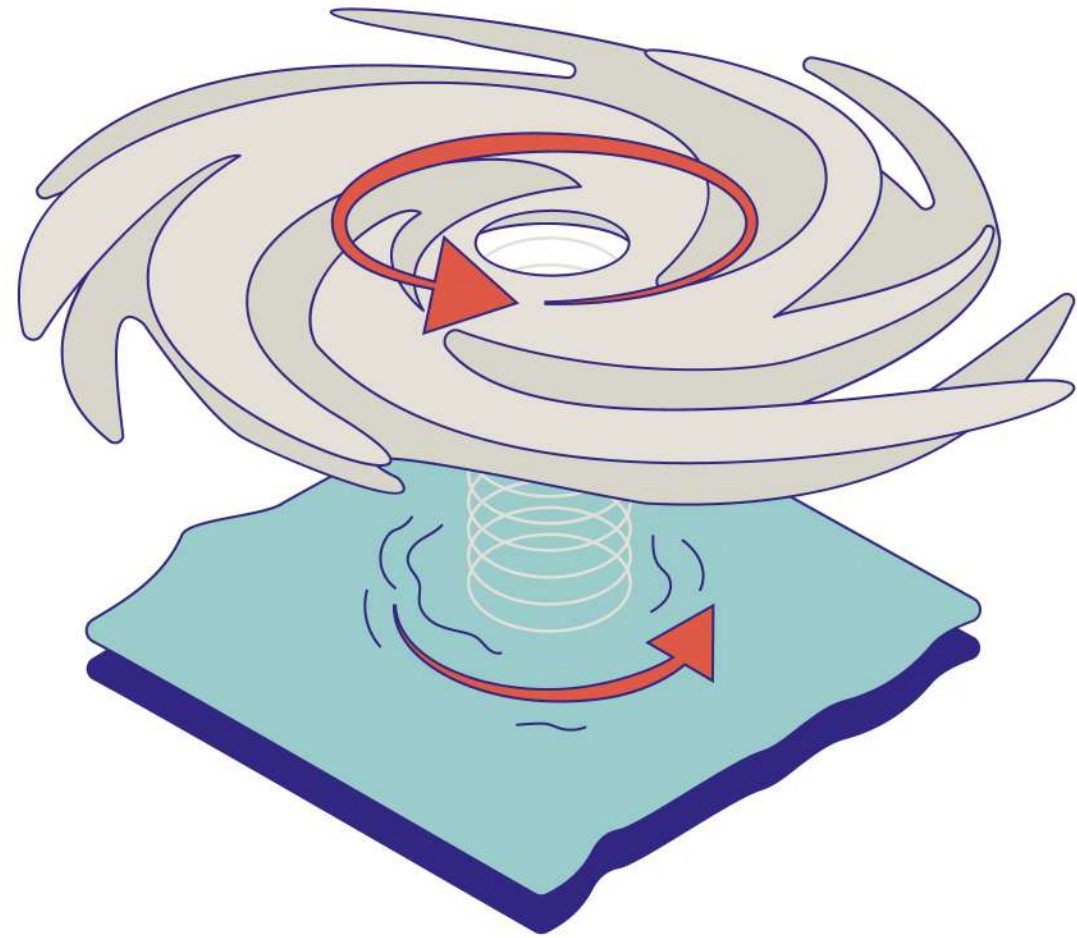

SANTA MARTA

HURRICANES

A hurricane is a tropical storm system that is characterized by strong winds. They form over bodies of warm water and can cover hundreds of kilometers of distance.

CHARACTERISTICS

- They occur near the equator line
- Hurricanes \neq Tornadoes
- Can last from 3 to 15 days (or more)

HURRICANE CATEGORIES

CATEGORY 1

- 74-95 MPH Winds
- Some damage
- Potential roof damage
- Power affected

CATEGORY 2

- 96-110 MPH Winds
- Major damage
- Major roof damage
- Power affected for several days.

CATEGORY 3

- 111-129 MPH Winds
- Devastating damage - Major home damage
- Power and water waffected.

CATEGORY 4

- 130-156 MPH Winds
- Catastrophic damage - Severe home damage
- Power and water affected months.

CATEGORY 5

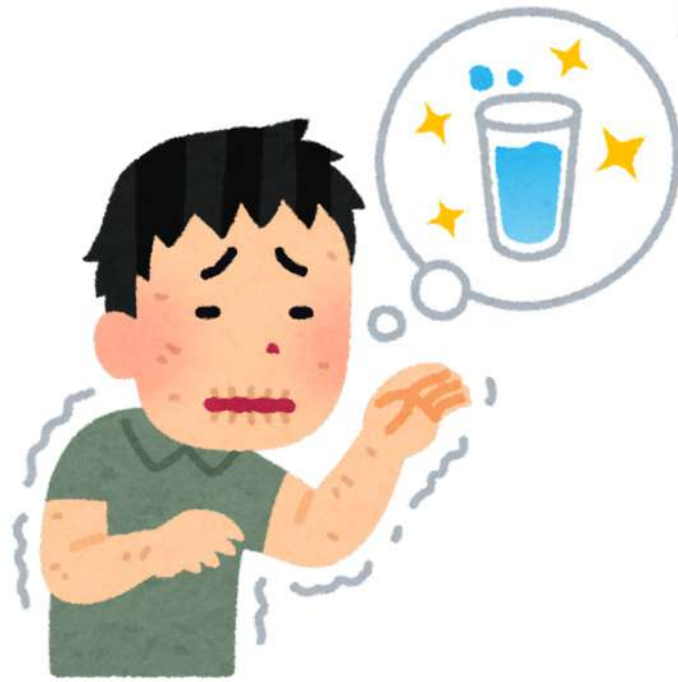

- >156 MPH Winds
- Catastrophic damage
- Many homes will be destroyed

HOW TO BE PREPARED FOR THE WORST ?

FOOD & WATER

SHELTER

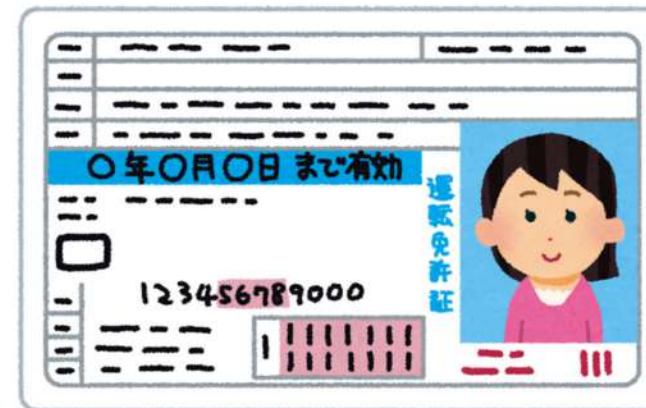

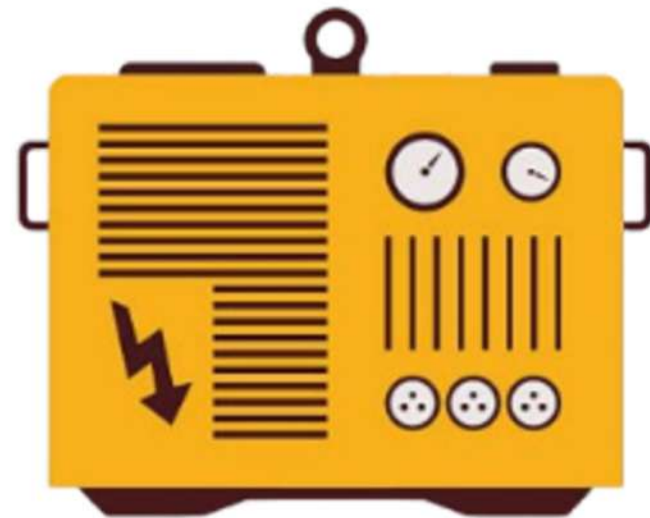

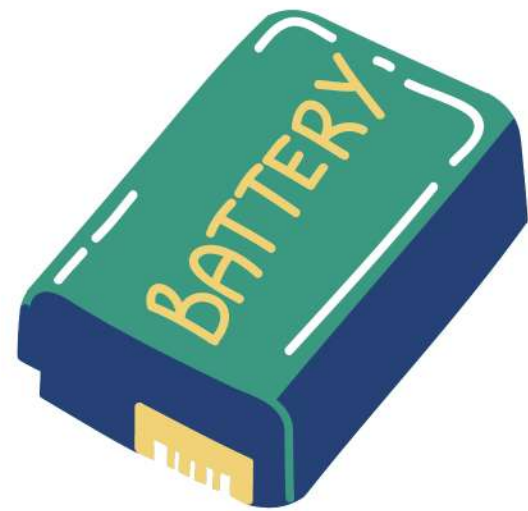

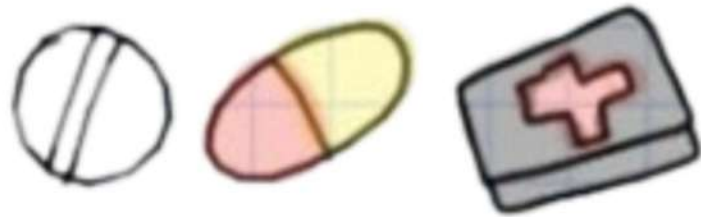

SECURITY

ESSENCIAL ELEMENTS

First aid kit

SEE YOU AT THE NEXT
HURRICANE